President Richard McCullough

Richard McCullough became the 16th president of Florida State University on August 16th, 2021. Prior to joining FSU, McCullough served as vice provost for research and professor of materials science and engineering at Harvard University since 2012. Previously, McCullough spent 22 years at Carnegie Mellon University where he began his academic career as an assistant professor of chemistry in 1990. At Carnegie Mellon, he developed the Greenlighting Start-ups Initiative that exponentially increased the generation of university spin-out companies and corporate engagement, adding to his rich background in entrepreneurship and innovation.

A first-generation college student from Mesquite, Texas, McCullough attended Eastfield Community College before earning a bachelor’s degree in chemistry from the University of Texas at Dallas in 1982 and a doctoral degree in organic chemistry from Johns Hopkins University in 1988. He also spent two years as a postdoctoral fellow at Columbia University in New York.

He and his wife, Jai Vartikar, have two children, Jason and Dylan, daughter-in-law, Sarah Christian, and two granddaughters, Gladys and Archer.
