The network consists of 1,540 miles of dark fiber/optical equipment, operating at 10 gigs/sec. & allowing up to 32 independent networks to exist. FSU has a supercomputing grid that enables researchers to use high capacity computing to support complex investigations.

University Libraries provide collections, resources and services to enhance the learning, teaching, research, and service activities of the Florida State University. The Libraries' collections includes 4.7 million titles and the web site offers access to more than 400 databases and 300,000 electronic journals. Materials not available online or at the libraries may be requested through interlibrary loan or through the statewide UBorrow system, offering FSU faculty and students millions of books from 40 other state university and college libraries. The Library Express Delivery Service delivers books and articles to faculty, post-docs, graduate, teaching and research assistants on a daily basis. University Libraries had over 1.8 million visitors in 2017-18. Strozier Library, FSU's largest library, is open 134 hours each week, providing around-the-clock research assistance and other services like free academic tutoring and a robust range of academic support throughout the day and late into the night.

The FSU Libraries include 7 libraries on campus: the Robert Manning Strozier Library, Paul A. M. Dirac Science Library, Mildred and Claude Pepper Library, Warren Allen Music Library, College of Law Library, College of Medicine Medical Library, and the College of Engineering Library. Library materials and services are also available at the FSU Panama City Campus, as well as International Programs study centers in London, Florence, and Panama, and a collection of art and related materials at the John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art in Sarasota, Florida.

Among the special programs which have won national or international distinction in research are the Program in Nuclear Research, Institute for Molecular Biophysics, FSU Marine Laboratory, Center for Music Research, Learning Systems Institute, FSU Proton-Induced X-Ray Emission (PIXE) Laboratory, FSU Institute of Science and Public Affairs, the College of Motion Picture Arts.

In 1990, the National Science Foundation announced that FSU would be the home of the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory. A joint project with the University of Florida and Los Alamos National Laboratory, the lab became the nation's top center for research on magnets millions of times more powerful than the Earth's magnetic field. This facility is the first national lab to be located in Florida and went into operation in 1994. Research at the lab is conducted in such diverse fields as biology, materials science, medicine, physics, chemistry, engineering, and superconductivity.

Seal of Florida State University

The seal of Florida State University, which was designed by the combined talents of the Art and Classics Departments, has its origins in the first decade of the 20th century during the administration of President Albert A. Murphree. It was updated in the year 2000 to accurately reflect the year that Florida State University was created, 1851. In 2005, minor cosmetic updates were made.

The torches of the seal symbolize the fire given to man by the Greek god Prometheus. This fire enabled man to elevate himself above the animals and become human. The torches of the FSU seal symbolize the purpose of the University: the passing on of knowledge from generation to generation. The torch on the left is Vires: strength of all kinds, physical, moral and intellectual. The center torch is Artes: that which we acquire - knowledge which transcends skills, the appreciation of beauty. The torch on the right is Mores: customs, character and tradition. Through these three ideals the student is educated physically, mentally and morally.

Dodd Online Resource: The history of the FSU seal and university identity guidelines can be viewed at: http://unicomm.fsu.edu/brand/ Florida State University, one of the largest and oldest of the twelve institutions of higher learning in the State University System of Florida, had its beginnings as early as 1823 when the Territorial Legislature began to plan a higher education system. In 1825 the Federal Government reserved two townships for the purpose of maintaining institutions of higher education in the territory, and on March 3, 1845, the United States Congress, in an act supplemental to the act admitting Florida as a state in the Union, added two more townships. These townships were granted to the State for the use of two seminaries of learning, one to be located east and the other west of the Suwannee River. The Legislature of the State of Florida in a Legislative Act of January 24, 1851, provided for the establishment of the two institutions of learning, their first purpose to be "the instruction of persons, both male and female, in the art of teaching all the various branches that pertain to a good common school education; and next to give instruction in the mechanic arts, in husbandry, in agricultural chemistry, in the fundamental laws, and in what regards the rights and duties of citizens."

By 1854 the City of Tallahassee had established a school for boys called the Florida Institute with the hope that the State could be induced to take it over as one of the seminaries, and in the 1854 session of the Legislature of Florida the City of Tallahassee presented a memorial asking that the institution west of the Suwannee be located in that city. That effort was not successful, but in 1856 the Intendant (Mayor) of Tallahassee again offered the Institute's land and building to the Legislature. Francis Eppes, who spent his formative years on the estate of his grandfather President Thomas Jefferson at Monticello in Virginia and shared his views of the importance to a democracy of a liberally educated citizenry, was the Mayor of Tallahassee who made the offer. This time they chose to accept the offer and designated Tallahassee as the site of one of the state seminaries because of its railway connections, its "salubrious climate," and its "intelligent, refined, and moral community." The bill to locate the Seminary in Tallahassee passed both houses and was signed by the Governor on January 1, 1857. On February 7, 1857, the first meeting of the Board of Education of the State Seminary West of the Suwannee River was held, and the institution began offering postsecondary instruction to male students. Francis Eppes served as President of the Seminary's Board of Education for eight years and instilled in the institution the Jeffersonian ideals which characterize it today. The school first became co-educational the following year (1858) when it absorbed the Tallahassee Female Academy, begun in 1843 as the Misses Bates School. Thus the West Florida Seminary, founded in 1851, began operating in 1857, only twelve years after Florida achieved statehood. It was located on the hill where the Westcott Building now stands, which has been the site of an institution of higher education longer than any other site in Florida.

Classes were held at the West Florida Seminary from 1857 until 1863, when the state legislature changed the name to The Florida Military and Collegiate Institute to reflect the addition of a military section which trained cadets. During the Civil War, cadets from the school, ranging in age from twelve to eighteen, fought in the Battle of Natural Bridge and helped make Tallahassee the only Confederate capitol east of the Mississippi not captured during the war. As a result of the brave action of the West Florida cadets in this battle, the Florida State University Army ROTC cadet corps today is one of only three in the nation authorized to display a battle streamer with its flag, which bears the words NATURAL BRIDGE 1865. After the end of the war in 1865, however, Union troops under General McCook descended upon Tallahassee and occupied the city (including campus buildings), remaining for more than a month.

Following the war, the institution entered a period of growth and development. In 1884 the first diplomas, Licentiates of Instruction, were awarded, and by 1891 the Institute had begun to focus clearly on what we would today call post-secondary education; seven Bachelor of Arts degrees were awarded that year. By 1897, the institution had evolved into the first liberal arts college in the state, and in 1901 it became Florida State College, a four-year institution organized in four departments: the College, the School for Teachers, the School of Music, and the College Academy. Florida State College was empowered to award the degree of Master of Arts, and the first master's degree was offered in 1902. That year, the student body numbered 252 men and women, and degrees were available in classical, literary and scientific studies. In 1903, the first university library was begun. The following quote from the 1903 Florida State College Catalogue adds an interesting footnote to this period:

"In 1883 the institution, now long officially known as the West Florida Seminary, was organized by the Board of Education as The Literary College of the University of Florida. Owing to lack of means for the support of this more ambitious project, and also owing to the fact that soon thereafter schools for technical training were established, this association soon dissolved. It remains to be remarked, however, that the legislative act passed in 1885, bestowing upon the institution the title of the University of Florida, has never been repealed. The more pretentious name is not assumed by the college owing to the fact that it does not wish to misrepresent its resources and purposes."

In a 1905 reorganization of Florida's educational system by the Legislature, six state institutions of higher learning were consolidated into two when the University of Florida in Gainesville was established and designated a men's school and the Florida State College became a women's school called the Florida Female College. The male student body moved from Tallahassee to Gainesville, taking with it the fraternity system and the College football team, which had been state champions in 1902, 1903, and 1905. In 1909 the name of the college was changed to Florida State College for Women, an institution which grew to become the third largest women's college in the nation during the 1930's. The College became fully accredited in 1915, and a chapter of the National Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi was installed in 1925, the year after the College was placed on the list of standard colleges and universities approved by the Association of American Universities and became a member of the Association of American Colleges. In 1935 the first chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in the state, Alpha Chapter of Florida, was installed at the College, a mark of its status as a true liberal arts college

The year 1947 saw many changes. Demand by returning World War II veterans had brought men back to the campus in 1946 with the establishment of the Tallahassee Branch of the University of Florida, and on May 15, 1947, the Governor signed an act of the Legislature returning Florida State College for Women to coeducational status and naming it Florida State University. A permanent president's residence was acquired. The student body, numbering 4,056, chose a new alma mater and selected the Seminole as their mascot. The Flying High Circus was born, and football was started again when the first home game since 1905 was played in October. Three years later Campbell Stadium was built. The first Student Union was established and housed in the "O Club" on West Campus, a former Army Air Base which housed mainly male students and provided some classroom space three miles west of the main campus.

The 1950's brought further development and expansion to the University. To the colleges and schools which had existed since the Florida State College days (Arts and Sciences, Education, Home Economics, and Music) were added Library Science, Social Welfare (later split into Social Work and Criminology), Business, Journalism (discontinued in 1959), and Nursing. A student in the Department of Chemistry was awarded the University's first Ph.D. in 1952. A new building was completed for the Developmental Research School, which in 1905 had evolved from the High School and the College Academy of earlier days as the Observation and Practice School, created to provide on-site opportunities for experience and research to students in Education. Tully Gymnasium, Strozier Library, and the Business Building were completed to enhance the education of the ever-increasing student population.

In the 1960's the University acquired the Shaw Poetry Collection, established the institutes of Molecular Biophysics and Space Biosciences, and constructed nine new buildings, including the Oglesby Union and the Fine Arts Building. During this period, the Panama Canal Branch was opened, and the Program in Medical Sciences was established. The first black student enrolled in 1962, and the first black Ph.D. candidates graduated in 1970. Programs in African American Studies and Women's Studies were established. Continuing the liberal arts tradition begun in the 1890's, the Liberal Studies Program required of all undergraduates was expanded and strengthened.

Before 1887 the institution's chief executive officer had the title Principal, but this was changed to President with the appointment of George Edgar in 1887. He was followed by Alvin Lewis in 1892, and Dr. A. A. Murphree in 1897. Dr. Murphree, who came to the Seminary in 1896, became president of Florida Female College in 1905. When he left to become president of the University of Florida in 1909, Dr. Edward Conradi became president of Florida State College for Women. In 1941, Dr. Doak S. Campbell became president. When Dr. Campbell retired as president of Florida State University on June 30, 1957, Dr. Albert B. Martin served as acting president until September 1, 1957, when Dr. Robert Strozier became president. At Dr. Strozier's death in April of 1960, Dr. Milton W. Carothers became acting president to serve until Dr. Gordon Blackwell took over the duties of president on September 16, 1960.

On February 1, 1965, Dr. John E. Champion became acting president replacing Dr. Gordon Blackwell, who resigned. Dr. Champion was named president on June 22, 1965; he resigned February 17, 1969, and Dr. J. Stanley Marshall was appointed acting president on the same date. On June 6, 1969, the Board of Regents named Dr. Marshall President; he resigned August 31, 1976. Dr. Bernard Francis Sliger became Interim President upon Dr. Marshall's resignation, and on February 7, 1977, the Board of Regents named Dr. Sliger President. At the Fall Meeting of the General Faculty on September 18, 1990, the Dean of the Faculties read a statement on Dr. Sliger's behalf announcing his resignation as president effective August 1, 1991. On March 11, 1991, Dr. Dale W. Lick was designated to succeed Dr. Sliger as president on August 1, 1991. After Dr. Lick's resignation on August 31, 1993, Dr. Sliger was again named Interim President. On November 29, 1993, H. Talbot "Sandy" D'Alemberte was designated president effective January 3, 1994. He was succeeded by Dr. Thomas K. Wetherell on January 6, 2003. Eric J. Barron took the position of 14th president on February 1, 2010. Following Barron's resignation, the Florida State University Board of Trustees named Dr. Garnett S. Stokes as Interim President effective April 2, 2014. John Thrasher became FSU's 15th president on November 6, 2014.

In each succeeding decade, Florida State University has added to its academic organization and presently is comprised of eighteen independent schools/colleges, plus The Graduate School. It has expanded from the original few acres and buildings to 384 buildings on 1,632.5 acres, including the downtown Tallahassee main campus of 485 acres, a farm which for many decades supplied the Florida State College for Women with food, the Seminole Reservation--a recreational facility, the Coastal and Marine Laboratory on the Gulf Coast, the FAMU/FSU College of Engineering facility, the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory and Division of Research at Innovation Park, and the branch campus in Panama City, Florida. One hundred and sixty-seven years after its founding, Florida State University started the 2018-2019 academic year with a student population of 41,717 and recognition as a major graduate research institution with an established international reputation.

Brief History of the State of Florida and the City of Tallahassee

Thousands of years of Native American culture preceded the European discovery of the Florida peninsula. An estimated 100,000 Native Americans were living here at the time of its discovery by Juan Ponce de Leon in early 1513. As Ponce de Leon's arrival coincided with the Spring Pascua Florida festivities in Spain, he named the new land "Florida," which meant "filled with flowers." La Florida was also explored by another Spanish adventurer – Hernando de Soto. It is believed that de Soto and his army of over 600 men spent the winter of 1539-40 in an abandoned Apalachee Indian village located in what is now the city of Tallahassee.

Prior to 1821; Florida had consisted of two Spanish colonies that were ceded to Great Britain in the settlement of the Seven Years' War (1756-1763). In 1821 President James Monroe appointed Andrew Jackson as territorial governor. One of the new governor's first acts was to organize the territory into two counties, Escambia and St. Johns, with the Suwannee River serving as the dividing line. (In 1822, two more counties were added – Duval in the east and Jackson in the west). The legislative council met at Pensacola, the capital of West Florida, in 1822, and at St. Augustine, the capital of East Florida, in 1823. As these two chief settlements of the territory were separated by 400 miles of wilderness, it was desirable to select a central site as a capital. Two commissioners appointed by Governor William Pope Duval selected the then uninhabited area known as Tallahassee as the site for the permanent capital and the governor proclaimed it the capital on March 4, 1824. The territorial council met there for the first time in November of that year. Tallahassee had been the site of Indian settlements prior to and during the Colonial Era. Its name is a Creek Indian phrase generally believed to mean "old town" or "old fields." Florida was admitted to the union as the 27th state on March 3, 1845.

Retention & Graduation Rates for Full-Time FTICs

* Allowable exclusions for FTIC students include those who left to serve in the military, church missions, foreign aid service of the federal government (e.g., Peach Corps), or any members of the original cohort who are deceased or permanently disabled.

Note: The fall cohort consists of full-time, FTIC students from the fall semester and the previous summer who continue into the fall. Students are followed through the end of summer so that each year begins with fall and ends with summer semester. The number re-enrolled is the number of students from the original fall cohort that were enrolled in the fall, spring or summer semester of the year indicated. The percent graduated is cumulative. Retention includes the number who re-enrolled plus the graduates of previous years.

* Grad III (Medical) Annual FTE is the fall Medical Doctorate headcount.

Note: The Florida Board of Governors (BOG) changed its FTE standard and that is represented beginning with the 2016-17 FSU Fact Book, and calculated retroactively on this page. The new FTE, which is a national standard, is calculated by dividing the total annual undergraduate hours by 30 and the total annual graduate hours by 24.

Panama City Campus Student Headcount Enrollment, Fall Semesters

The Panama City Campus of Florida State University began operations in 1967 when three universities started offering courses to area students. The University of West Florida was assigned to administer the campus in 1971, and that administrative responsibility was transferred to Florida State University in July, 1982. The Bay County Commission donated a 26 acre waterfront site for constructing new campus facilities to replace buildings loaned by the Bay County School Board and Gulf Coast Community College. Construction of the new campus facilities began in 1983, and the new buildings were ready for use during the 1987 spring semester. The Holley Academic Center opened in spring 2009 and includes 10 teaching laboratories.

The College of Applied Studies makes its home at the FSU-Panama City campus. The College was established to enable Florida State University Panama City to respond to the educational needs of the citizens of Northwest Florida and beyond.

Students enrolled at the Panama City campus are served by over 45 full-time faculty, plus additional faculty who travel from the Tallahassee campus (http://pc.fsu.edu/Faculty-Staff/Resident-Faculty-Directory).

The nature of faculty involvement in the governance system of Florida State University is set forth in the Constitution of the University, which designates the Faculty Senate as the basic legislative body of the institution. This structure has been in place since May 1931, when an amendment to the institution's constitution establishing the Senate was adopted by the general faculty and approved by the Board of Control of the state. A number of major amendments have been made since that time relating to elections, committees, and other matters. Prior to 1974 the President of the University was the presiding officer of the Senate, but an amendment that year changed the procedure to stipulate that the Senate elect annually its own President from the elected Senators comprising the body.

The Faculty Senate is composed of at least one elected representative from each college and school and one representative each from the Librarians and the Developmental Research School. Except for the two latter representatives, only full-time instructors, assistant professors, associate professors, and professors are eligible for representation in and election to the Senate. Senators serve two-year terms which begin at the April meeting of the Senate, at which time the President of the Senate is elected. The Steering Committee is composed of seven members elected by the voting members of the Senate to staggered two-year terms; the President of the Senate serves as chair of the committee.

The Faculty Senate formulates measures for maintaining a comprehensive educational policy and for maximum use of the University's intellectual resources. It determines and defines University-wide policies on academic matters, including Liberal Studies policy, admission, grading standards, and requirements for the awarding of degrees. The Senate may also formulate opinions on any subject of interest to the University and adopt resolutions thereon.

Eppes Professors

The Eppes professorship is named after Francis Eppes, the grandson of President Thomas Jefferson, who played a vital role in convincing the Florida Legislature to locate The Seminary West of the Suwannee, FSU's institutional predecessor, in Tallahassee. Over and above professors holding the university's Eminent Scholar chairs, the Francis Eppes Professorship is the ultimate honor, given to a few professors who are ranked at the very top of their field, who portray genuine leadership qualities and who are committed role models for their students. The Eppes professors are often deemed "Super Professors" because of the high quality of their character, vision and intellect.

Institutes and Research Centers are entities proposed by universities, the Legislature, or the Florida Board of Education (FBOE); approved by the Board of Governors (BOG) and/or the Chancellor or a university president (depending on the type of institute/center); and established by the universities for the purpose of coordinating intra- and/or inter-institutional research, service, and training activities that supplement and extend existing departmental instruction, research, and service programs. In some instances, institutes/centers are established by law, in which case they operate in accordance not only with State University System policies, rules, and procedures, but also with state statutes. The institutes and centers, along with their directors, are listed below. This list is accurate as of August 2019.

University Libraries provide collections, resources, and services to enhance the learning, teaching, research, and service activities of the Florida State University. The Libraries' collections include 4.7 million titles and the website offers access to 446 databases and more than 300,000 electronic journals. Materials not available online or at the Libraries may be requested through interlibrary loan or through the statewide UBorrow system, offering FSU faculty and students access to millions of books from 40 other state university and college libraries. The Library Express Delivery Service delivers books and articles to faculty, post-docs, graduate, teaching and research assistants on a daily basis.

University Libraries had over 1.8 million* visitors last fiscal year 2017-18. In the month of October 2017 alone, Strozier and Dirac had close to 250,000 visitors. Strozier Library, FSU's largest library, is open 134 hours each week to provide around-the-clock research assistance and other services like free academic tutoring and a robust range of academic support throughout the day and late into the night. Students and faculty have a choice of learning spaces, from the Scholars Commons' quiet Reading Room to the 24-hour coffee shop to the buzz of the Undergraduate Commons. Seven other campus libraries offer many of the same services and resources that are customized to complement the disciplines they serve. Library faculty offer classes and consultations to teach critical research and thinking skills reaching over 18,000 participants. For distant learners and other off-campus library users, online research services are available, and the library staff offers outreach to residence halls and buildings across campus.

The FSU Libraries include seven libraries on campus: the Robert Manning Strozier Library, Paul A. M. Dirac Science Library, Mildred and Claude Pepper Library, Warren Allen Music Library, College of Law Legal Research Center, College of Medicine Medical Library, and the College of Engineering Library. Library materials and services are also available at the FSU Panama City Campus and the Ringling campus in Sarasota, as well as International Programs study centers in London, Florence, Valencia, and Panama.

*includes Strozier, Dirac, Claude Pepper, Engineering, Law, Medicine, FSUPC, Ringling, Music, Republic of Panama Libraries, and the Heritage Museum for FY 2016-17.

BUILDINGS OF FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY SOME HISTORY, SOME FACTS, SOME DESCRIPTIONS

Many buildings on campus remain today from the pre-Florida State University era; however, none are still standing from the nineteenth century. The current university is built from a core of buildings that remain from the years of the Florida State College for Women. The oldest building on campus, Bryan Hall, was built during the days of the Florida Female College, immediately prior to the FSCW designation.

BRYAN HALL

Bryan Hall, the oldest existing structure on the Florida State University campus, was originally built in 1908 and named in honor of United States Senator William James Bryan. The building served as a residence hall until 1969 when a fire in the Westcott Building forced administrators to seek office space in Bryan Hall. Although some offices later returned to Westcott, others remained until the construction of the University Center made the hall available for restoration as a residence hall. The two-year renovation project was completed in January 1997 and the building was opened again as a residence hall in August 1997.

WESTCOTT BUILDING

The Westcott Building and Westcott Auditorium were constructed in 1909 and occupied in 1911. Westcott was known as the Administration Building until 1936 when it was officially named the James D. Westcott, Jr. Memorial Building by the Board of Control, the governing body of higher education in Florida at the time. James D. Westcott, Jr. was born in Tallahassee in 1893 and served the State of Florida as Attorney General and as a Supreme Court Justice. The Westcott Building burned in 1969, and when it was renovated, the fourth floor, previously an attic, was added as regular office space. In 1971, the Westcott Auditorium was named the Ruby Diamond Auditorium after Miss Ruby Diamond who attended Florida State College for Women and later became a benefactor of the University. In 2008, the auditorium was closed for renovation. It reopened in October of 2010 as the Ruby Diamond Concert Hall.

REYNOLDS HALL

Reynolds Hall was constructed in 1913 and named for Melissa E. Cochrane Reynolds, the first Lady Principal of The Florida State College for Women. Reynolds Hall was one of five historic residence halls to be renovated in a multi-million dollar project. During the renovation, the historical and aesthetic value of the building was preserved, in addition to providing up-to-date comfort and safety for students. Reynolds reopened in 1996 as a residence hall.

WILLIAM JOHNSTON BUILDING

Constructed in 1913, for over 60 years this building was known as the Dining Hall. When first constructed, it housed all the food operations including a bakery, creamery, and cannery. The eastern portion of the building, called the Suwannee Arcade, was the informal dining facility, while the western portion of the building contained two grand formal dining rooms with the President's private dining area above and between. At one time, all the dormitories and the infirmary were connected to the dining hall by a series of arcades, making it possible for students to reach the dining facilities and avoid any inclement weather. The Suwannee Arcade was restored and reopened in Spring 2006 as a student dining facility. The west wing of the Johnston Building was renovated and reopened in fall 2011. The building was named in the early 1980s for William H. Johnston.

BROWARD HALL

Broward Hall was constructed in 1917 and is one of the oldest residence halls on campus. It was named for Napoleon Bonaparte Broward, the 19th governor of Florida from 1905 to 1909, during whose term the Buckman Act reorganized higher education in the state and designated the Tallahassee school as the Florida State College for Women. Broward Hall was reopened in August 1998 as a coeducational hall after being closed for two years of renovation.

FRANCIS EPPES HALL

This building was constructed in 1918 and is one of the last remaining classroom buildings on campus from the pre-FSU era. After serving as the home to Education programs for its early years, it was known simply as the Psychology Building until the university's sesquicentennial celebration in 2001, when it was named in honor of Francis Eppes. Eppes, a seven-term Tallahassee mayor and grandson of U.S. President Thomas Jefferson, led the effort to locate the Seminary West of the Suwannee River, the forerunner of FSU, in Tallahassee. Once the school opened, Eppes served 11 years on the school's board of directors, including eight years as president of the board. In 2008, the Psychology Department moved to its new building on the west side of campus. Eppes Hall was fully renovated in 2012 and became the home to the College of Criminology and Criminal Justice in 2013.

REGIONAL REHABILITATION CENTER

This building was originally constructed in 1919 as the College Infirmary. As the College and Tallahassee grew, its role changed from student hospital to campus clinic, and is remembered as the Clinic Building. In 1966, a new student health center was built and the Clinic was given to various departments for use as office space. In the mid-1970s, the building was renovated, and the back half of the building, with its connecting arcade, was demolished. In June of 2012, the Regional Rehabilitation Center was demolished and was replaced in the fall of 2013 by the Honors, Scholars, and Fellows House.

JENNIE MURPHREE HALL

This building was constructed in 1921 and was a women's dormitory until 2015. The hall was named for Mrs. Jennie Murphree, a native of Tallahassee and the wife of Albert A. Murphree, the first president of Florida Female College. Today, the beauty of the Jacobean Revival architecture remains intact while the interior boasts state-of-the-art systems. The building was renovated in 1993, and became coeducational in 2015.

DODD HALL

Dodd Hall was constructed in 1923. It was the library for FSCW and then FSU until 1956 when a new modern library was constructed. It is named for William George Dodd who joined the faculty of Florida State College for Women in 1910, became the head of the Department of English and went on to serve as the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences for Florida State University. In 1982 the main library portion of the building was renovated and named the Pepper Library in honor of Claude and Mildred Pepper. The library has since been relocated to the Claude Pepper Center, and replaced by the Werkmeister Reading Room. In 1993, the Dodd Hall Auditorium was added to the building. Inscribed over the entrance to Dodd Hall in gold letters is "The Half of Knowledge, is to Know Where to Find Knowledge."

GILCHRIST HALL

Gilchrist Hall was constructed in 1925 and named after Albert Waller Gilchrist, the 20th governor of Florida, who gave unwavering support to the Florida State College for Women as a state agency. Its gabled terra cotta roof, Gothic stonework and gently curved entrance clearly recall medieval monastic architecture. This collection is reflected in the hall's main lounge, which features an intricately carved fireplace, dark multi-toned tile flooring, and grapevine motif doorway moldings. In August, 1998, Gilchrist reopened as a coeducational hall, after being closed for two years of renovation.

WILLIAMS BUILDING

This building was constructed in 1926. It was known as the History Building until 1963 when it was named in honor of Arthur Williams. Dr. Williams, historian and Bible scholar, was the only vice president that Florida State College for Women ever had. Conradi Auditorium, located in a wing of this building, is named for Augusta Conradi, wife of Dr. Edward Conradi who served as President of Florida State College for Women for 32 years. In 2001, extensive renovation of the Williams Building was completed. While the renovation resolved many of the building's notable design quirks, its historical appearance was maintained.

MONTGOMERY GYM

This building, constructed in 1938 as the physical education facility of Florida State College for Women, contains a heated indoor swimming pool, basketball court, and at the time of its completion, a bowling alley. The facility has been the home of the synchronized swimming team, The Tarpons, since its beginning. The bowling alley no longer exists but the pool, renovated in the mid-1980s, still is in operation. The building was named for Dr. Katherine Williams Montgomery, Miss Katie, as she was known to all, a 1918 graduate of FSCW. In 1920 she became an instructor of Physical Education at the College and in 1923 was named director of Physical Education. Dr. Montgomery died on October 1, 1958-the day she was to have retired officially from her duties at the Florida State University. In early 2004, major renovations to Montgomery Gym were completed.

LONGMIRE BUILDING

This building was constructed in 1938 and was known for many years as the Alumni Building. It was originally constructed as a dormitory/hotel for visitors and returning alumni. The building had a working kitchen in the basement, with a large dining room and small parlor. The large dining room and parlor were used as reception rooms by the Alumni Association. The building was named for Miss Rowena Longmire. Miss Longmire was an English professor and also served as faculty advisor to the Alumni Association of FSCW, and in 1917 was president of the Alumni Association.

LANDIS HALL

Landis Hall was completed in 1939 and was originally designated as a Seniors Hall. The building later became a coed facility. Landis Hall was named for Cary D. Landis, who was an Attorney General during the 1930s. The dormitory was renovated and reopened in fall 2006. Landis Hall sits at the south end of the courtyard known as Landis Green, with Strozier Library situated at the other end. Landis Hall is home to the FSU Honors Community. To celebrate Heritage Day in 2005, the Landis Green Legacy Fountain was unveiled. The fountain commemorates the history of the university with three sculptures representing the era between 1915-1947 and three depicting present day life on campus.

University Counseling Center

The University Counseling Center (UCC), a department in the Division of Student Affairs, provides counseling services and programs to help students resolve psychological issues and personal concerns that interfere with academic progress, social development, and emotional well-being. Our goal is to help students function to the best of their abilities and make the most of their years at FSU. Because student fees cover these services, there is no out-of-pocket expense for any visit for all currently enrolled FSU Students. UCC services are provided by licensed psychologists, licensed mental health counselors, licensed clinical social workers and trainees on varying levels. These services include but are not limited to brief individual therapy, group therapy, crisis intervention, consultation, and referrals. Outreach presentations on mental-health topics and life skills are available to students, residence halls, student organizations, faculty, and staff. The UCC sponsors RENEW (Realizing Everyone's Need for Emotional Wellness), a peer-educator student organization whose mission is the promotion of emotional health and coping skills to FSU students. Students can receive individual instructional sections by RENEW members on various topics including time management, stress management, and test anxiety. Enrolled students may initiate counseling services by walking in to the UCC during regular office hours and requesting to speak with a clinician. When meeting with a clinician at walk-in, the clinician will determine the best plan for meeting the individual student's mental health needs. In addition, students who are experiencing a mental health crisis at a time outside of the UCC's regular office hours have the option of calling the UCC's after-hours service at 850-644-TALK and immediately speaking with a clinician. Records of visits to the UCC as well as after-hours crisis calls are strictly confidential and are not included in the student's University records. Confidential information will not be released to anyone without written permission, unless there appears to be clear and imminent danger to the student or others. Students who are aware that they will require longer-term treatment are encouraged to make arrangements for private care in the community before entering the University. However, if necessary, the University Counseling Center's staff will make referrals for ongoing treatment in the Tallahassee community. Treatment outside the center will be at the student's expense.

University Health Services

University Health Services (UHS) provides a coordinated continuum of care through prevention, intervention and treatment services. Services include general medical care, priority care, women's care, psychiatry, allergy injection clinic, immunizations, nutrition, confidential HIV testing, diagnostic imaging, physical therapy, and a medical response unit. UHS bills the student's insurance for any charges incurred. CHAW addresses environmental factors that reduce risk and educates students about healthy lifestyles. CHAW also offers internships and educational opportunities; and mentors, trains, and advises peer health educators while encouraging creativity and leadership. The FSU Office of Financial Aid exists to assist students with securing federal, state and institutional financial aid to achieve their degree. Each year, the FSU Office of Financial Aid awards and administers more than 280 million dollars in financial aid to eligible students. Students receive aid in the form of scholarships, grants, work study, and loans -- funds that help them to focus on their education and complete their degree so that they can go into the world with purpose.

Types of Aid Available:
Loans	Need-based Scholarships and Grants
Direct Subsidized Stafford Loans	Federal Pell
Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loans	SEOG
Direct PLUS Loans	State scholarships/grants
Federal Perkins Loans	Private scholarships
	College/university scholarship or grant aid

In order to award aid, a school must first establish an estimated cost of attendance. This includes fixed amounts, such as tuition and fees, as well as amounts that must be estimated such as room, board, books, transportation, and personal expenses.

Need-based aid, such as Federal Grants, Work-Study, Federal Loans, State Grants, and University Grants can be awarded up to the amount of need established through the federal formula. Loans such as the Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan and the Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) or Graduate PLUS loan can be awarded beyond the calculated need, up to the amount of the cost of attendance. The total of all aid awarded cannot exceed the cost of attendance as established by the school.

The budgets below are approximate and represent two semesters (fall 2019 and spring 2020) of regular study (13 credits per semester) at the main campus. The actual budgets used to award aid may vary slightly to comply with any regulatory changes that are made after initial estimation. These budgets are for the purpose of awarding financial aid, and may not represent the actual cost for each individual student, as enrollment and lifestyle choices will impact actual expenses. Tuition includes a differential fee that is applied to all undergraduate students who began enrollment after July 2007 (exception - students who have Florida Pre-Paid Tuition plan active as of 7/1/2007).

There has been an FSU Flying High Circus for almost as long as there has been a Florida State University. When the Florida State College for Women went coeducational in 1947, one of the new faculty members was Jack Haskin. As a high school coach in Pontiac, Illinois, Haskin had staged student gymnastic exhibitions. He wanted to start an activity at the new university which would allow men and women to participate together. His idea was the circus.

The Flying High Circus is a self-supporting activity. No student activity fees, tuition payments, university or state funds go towards circus activities. Unlike many other athletic endeavors, the students receive no tuition waivers or university scholarships for their long hours of practice for the nationally famous shows that bring credit to FSU.

The acts in the Flying High Circus have evolved from "circus activity" to "circus professionalism." Performances are often of such high caliber that professional contracts are sometimes offered to student performers, especially on the flying trapeze. In the circus, you will see tricks attempted and completed that are more difficult than many you would see in other American or European circuses. Examples include the triple somersault on the flying trapeze (accomplished by two performers at FSU), the seven man pyramid on the high wire (which has only been performed by two other groups), double back somersaults on the skypole and many more. Some acts are unique to the FSU Circus or are rarely done elsewhere such as triple aerial high casting and three-lane breakaway. Other acts are traditional circus classics. There are no animal acts in the Circus.

Few of the student performers had any previous circus training before coming to Florida State, although some have had related training such as springboard diving or gymnastics. Many receive their first introduction to the circus through the one-hour course on circus activities offered for credit by the university, but more enter the circus as a result of personal contact with other circus members. Training for the various acts is provided by one full-time coach, a member of the FSU Circus as a student, and a staff of paid and volunteer student assistants. Different acts are added to the show or removed from the show as performers with particular strengths and talents join the circus, learn new acts and different tricks, and then graduate. No two shows are alike.

A significant difference from professional circuses is the use of safety nets and safety lines. These will not help a performer complete a trick, but they do provide an extra margin of security for the student performers. The FSU Circus emphasizes the performances, not the risks. An additional measure of safety is provided by having the students do all the rigging. Since the performers rig their own acts in practice, they become more aware of the importance of correct rigging since they will be working on equipment that they have set up. Because of these safety features, the use of progressive learning techniques, and the high caliber of the students involved, the Flying High Circus maintains a high reputation for safety.

And, yes, they really do it "just for fun." Only one semester hour of credit for the circus activities course can be earned by an undergraduate on a one-time basis and many performers have never taken the course. The participants work on their own time practicing at the circus lot after classes or working on conditioning or juggling skills at home in the evenings and on the weekends. In addition, they must maintain a "C" average to appear in the home shows on campus and "C+" average to travel on the road shows, far above that required for other athletic endeavors. Yes, grades are not a problem; their collective average has always been one of the highest for students in any extracurricular activity in the University, even though many of the students are in demanding fields such as pre-medicine, nursing, computer science, and accounting.

Academic Year - Usually, consecutive fall and spring semesters, currently August through April; sometimes, however, summer semester is included in the term "academic year." In Florida, the summer term precedes fall and spring semesters in the school year.

Administrative and Professional (A&P) - A pay plan for middle and upper level administrative and professional positions. This pay plan category combines administrative employees, who are responsible for formulating, interpreting, and implementing policies that affect the activities of the University, with professional employees, whose responsibilities are on a recognized level of comparability with the instruction and research personnel of the University.
