

College of Applied Sciences

Table 3: Student Learning Outcomes

Bachelors in Public Safety and Security

Outcome Type	Outcome	Assessment & Evaluation Process
Program Outcome	By the end of the year, faculty and staff will engage in recruiting strategies that will diversify student perspectives in the program.	Enrollment statistics for the Public Safety & Security program will have a student population with at least 12% from diverse backgrounds
Student Learning Outcome	Career Goals - Upon completion of the program, students will be able to describe the relationship between their program experiences and their future career goals.	This will result in 70% of PS&S Majors receiving an evaluation of competent or better on the career goals criterion of the internship paper rubric. This information will be evaluated and collected by the faculty managing the internships
Student Learning Outcome	Knowledge Application - Upon completion of the program, students will be able to describe key concepts and skills from the program that will apply to their future employment	This will result in 70% of PS&S Majors receiving an evaluation of competent or better on the knowledge application criterion of the internship paper rubric. This information will be evaluated and collected by the faculty managing the internships.
Student Learning Outcome	Performance Evaluation - Upon completion of the program, the student will be able to: provide evidence of their accomplishments.	This will result in 70% of PS&S Majors receiving an evaluation of competent (grade of C or better) on the performance evaluation submitted by the internship supervisor .
Student Learning Outcome	Learning Strategies - Upon completion of the program, the student will be able to: evaluate the strategies	This will result in 70% of PS&S Majors receiving an evaluation of competent or better on the learning strategies criterion of the internship paper rubric. This information will be evaluated and collected by the faculty managing the internships
Student Learning Outcome	Practical Skills Development - Upon completion of the program, the student will be able to: identify what additional practical skills and knowledge were acquired during the internship	This will result in 70% of P&S Majors receiving an evaluation of competent or better on the practical skills criterion of the internship paper rubric. This information will be evaluated and collected by the faculty managing the internships
Student Learning Outcome	Computer Competency - Upon completion of CCJ3071, Computer Applications in Criminal Justice, the student will be able to show competency in Public Safety Computing	This will result in 72% of PS&S Majors receiving a score of 80% or better on the Capstone Project in CCJ3071
Student Learning Outcome	Communication - Upon completion of the program, the student will be able to: summarize the history of the organization, organizational structure and mission of the agency providing the internship experience	This will result in 75% of PS&S Majors receiving an evaluation of competent or better on the communication criterion of the internship reflection 2 assignment. This information will be evaluated and collected by the faculty
Program Outcome	By the end of the year faculty will engage in teaching strategies to increase diversity and inclusion instruction in the Public Safety and Security undergraduate degree program	Beginning in the fall 2020 course will be developed and start the curriculum review process in the UCC for the liberal studies designation. By year end the course should be active as a and being taught as a liberal studies diversity approved course
Student Learning Outcome	Career Readiness - Upon completion of CJE 4710 Capstone Internship, 50% of students will report in the exit survey they are prepared and will continue working in and pursuing advancement in current PSS job, pursue employment or continue education in the field of Public Safety and Security	At least 50% of the Public Safety and Security degree program students will report in the Capstone Exit Survey that they are prepared and ready to advance in their current PSS job, pursue work or continue their education in PSS
Student Learning Outcome	Critical Thinking - Upon completion on the course CCJ 4744 Evidential Reasoning, Public Safety and Security students will be able to identify the concepts and tools needed for structural thought processes	Upon completion of CCJ 4744 Evidential Reasoning, at least 60% of students will assess as competent (C or better) on the final exam.

Source: FSU Institutional Effectiveness Portal (“Nuventive Improve”) 2020-2021